

BRITISH AUTOMOBILE RACING CLUB

AND FOR AN FIFTEENTH YEAR

2011 BARC MEMBER COMPETITORS CHAMPIONSHIP LOYALTY BONUS SCHEME

In 2010, competitors in BARC 'Club Status' Championships, will again benefit from the loyalty bonus scheme, whereby those who plan to contest all rounds, may claim their last entry fee of the season, free up to the equivalent value of a 2011 basic entry fee of £195:00.

The rules of the scheme are quite simple:

- Potential claimants MUST be members of the BARC
- Potential claimants MUST have competed in all previous rounds of their championship, having paid a relevant entry fee and not received any form of refund, either total or partial.
- Potential claimants MUST complete the individual claim form attached and submit it, either with their final entry of the season together with payment of any outstanding balance of entry fee over and above the maximum bonus claimed OR if all rounds of the championship have been entered on-line, the form must be submitted before the last event takes place and a refund of the bonus will be arranged.
LATE OR RETROSPECTIVE CLAIMS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.

For Championships as per the list overleaf, where BARC do not organise all of the championship rounds, a proportion of the total bonus will be allowed as listed.

In the 2010 season, a total of 61 competitors from 12 championships took advantage of this scheme, claiming free entries worth in excess of £4,200:00 - make sure you are one of them next year - you could save anything up to £195:00 each !

Best of luck in your 2011 Championship
